

Accessibility Guide

Welcome

Our Bed and Breakfast is set in the beautiful Wye Valley, set in 2.5 Acres of Herefordshire Countryside. We have been welcoming guests since 2005.

Whether you stay for a day, a week or more. Whether you are here to see the sights, visit friends or family, or are just passing through, there is always a warm welcome at The Falcon House

We are unable to accommodate wheelchair users as the property is listed and on multiple levels. We can accommodate guests of limited mobility but there are steps into the guest bedrooms and Breakfast room

Please get in touch if you require any further information about specific access or need advice on planning your visit. On 01989 740223 or falcon.house@gmail.com

Those with hearing or sight impairments should enquire as to what reasonable adjustments can be made. There is experience within the family team of disability issues. Awareness training has been gained through ongoing employment settings.

Getting here

The Falcon House

How Caple

Herefordshire

HR1 4TF

Travel by public transport

- You can't get directly to The Falcon house via public transport..
- The nearest train station is Hereford station. Hereford station is 9.1 miles away.
- A wheelchair accessible taxi can be booked from Blue Line Taxis on 01432 343435

Parking

- There is on site gravel parking suitable for around 8 cars.

Arrival

Path to main entrance

- From the car park to the entrance is gravel and then a slab stone path
- The path is sloped.
- There is a single step up into the entrance.

 Main entrance

- The main entrance after the step in has another step down into room 1.
- There is a step up toward room 2.

Getting Around Inside

- There are 6 letting rooms, 2 are situated on the ground floor and are connected by an internal door which can be opened to adjoin the rooms.
- The other 4 rooms are accessed via an internal staircase with a hand rail.
- Or an external stone staircase also equipped with a hand rail

